After considerable delay, of which I advised Mary Jane before my departure from Los Angeles, we finally took off at about noon. We were again delayed in Tucson for approximately an hour due to some mechanical difficulty with the airplane. This annoyed me considerably but annoyed even more my travelling companion, one Governor Thomas E. Dewey and his party.

It was certainly a real pleasure to see your fine new station and to talk with all of the staff again. Your operation is a splendid one and leaves little to be desired. I was not able to say goodbye to all of the staff and hope you will convey to them my sincere appreciation for the fine job that they are all doing and my extreme pleasure in seeing them again in their new location.

I arrived home at about 4:00 a.m. Thanksgiving morning, had a nice Thanksgiving dinner with the [REDACTED] that afternoon and saw the Army Navy game on Saturday. That about brings you up to date on my activities.

I hope that your husband arrived safely and that you had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday together.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
